There are, at present, ten permanent personnel on duty at [REDACTED].

Two new substations and additional circuits have been created under the [REDACTED] Station, and there has been an increase in cable traffic over the past two months from 50,000 groups per month to 96,000 groups, an increase of 46,000 groups. There are two permanent personnel presently on duty at the [REDACTED] Station.

In order to handle the expanded operations at these stations, it has been necessary for Commo to detail personnel from headquarters and from Commo's ASCA on a temporary basis.
